

DAILY BULLETIN
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 2016 – DAY 3

SPANISH CLUB: The Spanish Club will be celebrating the Day of the Dead tomorrow at 2:00 in room 228. All members are welcome. If you have any questions, see Mrs. Tangredi.

PARKING PASSES: If you are currently driving to school and did not purchase a parking pass, please come to the office to purchase one for $20.00 and bring your registration.

PINK RIBBON CLUB: Permission slips for those volunteering at the Rays of Hope Walk are available in room 128. All students participating in Rays of Hope must turn in permission slips by today in room 128.

DRAMA CLUB: This your last chance to audition for the winter play. Auditions will be held at 2 p.m. today in the auditorium. Everyone is welcome. No experience or prior membership is needed. Anyone interested in a part in the play – including returning members – MUST attend auditions, OR see Ms. Huba in room 109 as soon as possible.

SWIMMING & DIVING TEAM: The ELHS Swimming and Diving team will have an informational preseason meeting today at 2 p.m. at the pool for new and returning swimmers and divers. No formal swimming and diving experience is required.

ACOUSTIC CAFÉ: The first Acoustic Café of the year will be held tonight at 6:00. Come see the men's group the Acafellas, the women's group Duly Noted and fellow students playing guitar, mandolin, singing and playing keyboard. It is in the cafeteria and baked goods and coffee will be available.

WRITING CLUB: The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 2nd at 1:45 in room 121. We will be doing our yearbook photos. New members are welcome.

SPORTS: JV Field Hockey vs. West Springfield At home 5:30
Varsity Field Hockey vs. West Springfield At home 7:00